

Humans and Other Animals: Challenging the Boundaries of Humanity

Institute of Philosophy
University of London, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU

11th and 12th June 2010

FRIDAY 11th June 2010

9.30 Registration and Coffee

10.00 Professor John Harris
"Personhood for Animals"

11.00 Professor Frans de Waal
"Is Man a Wolf to Man? – Morality and the Social Behavior of our Fellow Primates"

12.00 Short Break

12.15 Prof Sir Patrick Bateson
"Challenging the Boundaries of Humanity"

1.15 Lunch

2.15 Prof Raymond Tallis
"Darwinism Yes, Darwinitis No. Reaffirming Human Exceptionalism"

3.15 Prof Sarah Cunningham-Burley
"What Would You do? Personal Ethics and the Use of Animals in Medical Research and Interventions"

4.15 Tea/coffee break

4.30 Dr Juan Carlos Gomez
"Solving Momo's Problem: Evolution and the Emergence of Windows to the Mind"

5.30-6.45 Wine Reception

SATURDAY 12th June 2010

9.30 Registration and Coffee

10.00 Dr Matteo Mameli
“Animals, Humans and Moral Judgement”

11.00 Prof David DeGrazia
“Genetic Enhancement, Human Nature, and Moral Status”

12.00 Lunch

1.00 Dr Lisa Bortolotti and Dr Constantine Sandis
“With Power Comes Vulnerability”

2.00 Prof Margot Brazier
“What or Who is Human: A Conundrum for the Law”

3.00-3.30 Closing comments and conclusions